

The First sight of Christ 5000 BC God promised Adam and Eve in the midst of their punishment that He had a plan. He would make a way for everyone to come back to Him. Someday a baby would be born who would crush the serpent.	Fall of Man 5000 BC We sinned. We didn't believe we needed to obey God. Because of that rejection sin and pain and death entered the world. Because of that decision we are separated from God. But God had a plan to restore our relationship.	Creation 5000 BC In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth, and He made us to be in communion with Him. Everything was on earth as it is in heaven, but then.
Abraham 2100 BC Abraham was sent out into a sinful world as a light by God, just as Jesus was sent out into the world.	Noah 3500 BC Through Noah, one man, the whole world was saved, just as through Jesus all of the world can be saved from death.	Cain and Abel 4900 BC We see Jesus again in Abel, who though he was innocent died at his brother's hands.
Joseph 1915 BC Joseph was rejected by his brothers. He was wrongfully accused of a crime he did not commit and punished for that crime. But he emerged from that prison to prepare a home for those who rejected him. Jesus was rejected by his people, and killed for a crime he did not commit, but rose again 3 days later and went to prepare a home for those who choose to follow Him.	Jacob 2000 BC Jacob shows us God's love and how far God will go to rescue the Prodigal Son. Jacob ran far from God's love but God pursued him that all the way.	Isaac 2050 BC God called Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac. Isaac points us to Jesus because he was a willing sacrifice just as Jesus willingly went to the cross.

Samson 1175 BC Samson shows us how we can try very hard and look like we follow God, but without the one true light of the world we cannot truly follow God.	10 Commandments 1400 BC The 10 Commandments show us God is both holy AND loving. You cannot accurately understand God without both. A holy God would kill you the instant you sinned. A loving God would not discipline you and teach you what is best for you. A holy and loving God will point you back to Him and to what is best for you.	Moses 1400 BC Moses led the Israelites out of the wilderness after rescuing them from slavery in Egypt. Just like Jesus rescues us from the consequences of sin and leads us out of danger.
David 1055 BC David showed us a true king. One who pursued God with all his heart and pointed his people to God. But unlike Jesus, David was a man, and he sinned. Jesus was a perfect man, who never sinned, and is the perfect king.	Saul 1100 BC Saul shows us the folly of choosing because of beauty. Saul looked like a king, but his heart was not strong, and he did not follow God. Jesus did not look like a king, but he stood strong under temptation.	Ruth 1200 BC Ruth is lost in her poverty. She cannot rescue herself, no matter what she does. But Boaz can, he rescues her from her poverty and marries her. Just as Jesus rescues us from our sin and will one day marry the church.
Hezekiah 700 BC Hezekiah became king after those who had not followed God. Hezekiah was one man who brought many back to God while everyone told him it could not be done. Jesus is one man who brought many to God while everything fought against Him.	Kings of Northern Israel 925-722 BC We look at Northern Israel and see what a world would be like without God. Over and over again we see the results of their sin, death, murder, war, destruction. Jesus offers us a world of peace with no sin.	Solomon 1015 BC Solomon shows us the folly of a church not daily relying on God. Like the man who built his house on sand his house washed away because it was not built on the bedrock of God.

Isaiah 740 BC Isaiah was given a vision of heaven and what Jesus will come to do. He tells of Jesus birth, and his eventual death and resurrection	Jonah 760 BC Jonah ran from God, which Jesus never did, but then Jonah sat in the belly of a big fish for 3 days, and preached the words of redemption just like Jesus. Jesus was dead and in a grave for 3 days, and resurrected to preach the words of life to the world.	Josiah 640 BC Josiah became king as a young boy. He followed God from a young age, just as Jesus showed us in Luke that He followed hard after God from a young age.
Daniel 635 BC In Daniel we see Jesus ruling and triumphant. We do not see Jesus the sacrificial lamb, we see Jesus coming at the end to punish and to reward. He rules eternal and forever.	Ezekiel 580 BC Ezekiel gave us Jesus favorite title, the Son of Man. Over and over God calls Ezekiel "Son of Man," and Jesus called himself "Son of Man."	Jeremiah 627 BC Jeremiah the weeping prophet shows us a Jesus who cries for the world's sins. Jeremiah cries for the fate of Jerusalem, a city he loves and knows will be destroyed. Jesus hundreds of years later cries for Jerusalem as he looks at a city caught in sin and bound for judgement if they do not repent.
The New Testament 33AD-??? But Jesus story does not end in the Gospels. All of the New Testament and much of the Old Testament tells us to keep watch, for Jesus is coming again. And we can study and learn for when that will happen.	Hosea 701 BC God called Hosea to love and marry a woman who did not love him, he stayed a faithful bridegroom, though his bride was not faithful. Jesus too has married a faithless wife, the church. Though we wander far from his love at itmes, Jesus will always stay faithful.	Esther 480 BC Esther was chosen to be queen in a foreign land. Her people were about to be killed, but she stepped forward and risked herself to save her people. Through her actions her people were saved. Jesus came to this world and through his death on the cross all are saved.
